Early Christmas for underprivileged children

Penang, 21 December 2016 – Staff of Eastern & Oriental Berhad (E&O) celebrated an early Christmas with the children and volunteers of Penang Shan Children’s Home Association at their premises in Mount Erskine here.

To improve the living conditions of the children at the home, E&O also repaired the home’s kitchen doors, cabinet and ceiling. They also installed a grill at the main door and the children’s dormitory windows.

E&O collaborated with its vendor WnJ Cleaning Services Sdn Bhd to spring clean and spruce up the home.

The staff from the group’s property, retail and hospitality divisions gave out RM2,200 worth of daily necessities to the home.

E&O group strategy and communications senior manager Ann Tan said the contribution was part of E&O’s ongoing engagement effort with the local community within the Seri Tanjung Pinang vicinity.

“Apart from the restoration works and provision of daily necessities for the home, we put up a Christmas tree complete with colourful ornaments at the home to create a festive atmosphere for the children,” she said.

The children were delighted when Santa Claus made a surprise appearance and handed out ‘Christmas red packets’. This was followed by an afternoon tea session to end the programme for the day.

Penang Shan Children’s Home Association chief executive officer Krish Rethina said it was definitely a memorable Christmas for the children.

“We are happy to receive the daily necessities. With the improvements that E&O has contributed to the home, the children can now usher in the new year in a healthier and safer environment,” he said.
